To whom it may concern,

In my opinion based on several years of experience working together, Daniel Sharon has proven he has excellent leadership, coaching, and customer service skills. His efforts have led to success on a continual basis. He is effective in developing strong relationships with clients and peers by consistently working with class and respect. I strongly recommend his services to anyone seeking customer service programs. Please feel free to reach out to me should you desire to speak about Daniel any further.

Sincerely,

Gene Gomborg
